The Jive Sisters

With Jazz Vibraphonist Harry Sheppard

Pamela Bingham (Sheppard) (clarinet/vocals/saxophone)

Ms. Bingham, the founder of “The Jive Sisters”, graduated with a Masters degree from The Shepherd School of Music at Rice University and is currently an adjunct professor of music at Houston Community College. Pamela was an alternate musician with the Houston Symphony for six years and has performed as a feature clarinetist with Klezmer Bands both nationally and locally.

Harry Sheppard (vibraphone)

A local mainstay since he moved here in 1985, this octogenarian is a seasoned vibraphonist whose long list of credits includes backing big jazz giants such as Billie Holiday and Benny Goodman. The New York Times referred to Harry as “a thoroughly original vibraphonist” and Jazz Times reviewed his CD Standards stating, “A major talent on Vibes.....he has four-mallet technique to burn!”

Pick a night and he’s bound to be on stage somewhere in Houston.

Lisa Whitley (vocals)

Ms. Whitley’s ability to combine acting with her love of singing, led to her first professional job with Houston’s own, Theatre Under The Stars. She subsequently appeared in numerous roles with TUTS.

In 2004, Lisa was the winner of KPRC channel two’s Gimme The Mic competition, and today, her musical experience covers the spectrum from performing with Popular Dance Bands to Jazz Trios.

Haley Dyes (vocals)

Ms. Dyes holds a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree in Musical Theatre from Sam Houston state University.

Haley’s musical credits include performances in theatres through out the Houston area, as well as an appearance at The Kennedy Center. Ms. Dyes also appeared in the 2007 NBC television series “Clash of The Choirs”.
